

Finding Your Path

A Career Panel Presented by the
Korean American Bar Association of San Diego

The Honorable Barry Ted Moskowitz, U.S. District Court Judge
Jonathan Hangartner, Principal, X-Patents, APC
Kelly Mok, Deputy District Attorney
Michelle S. Park, Founding Partner, Park Fryar LLP
Alan K. Tse, General Counsel, LG Electronics MobileComm USA

Thursday,
January 29, 2009
5:45 P.M.

Room 302
Law Library Building

Thomas Jefferson School of Law
2121 San Diego Avenue,
San Diego, CA 92110

Light refreshments

Honorable Barry Ted Moskowitz

Judge Moskowitz received his B.A. with highest honors in 1972 and his J.D. with high honors in 1975 from Rutgers University. He served as a law clerk for the Hon. Leonard I. Garth, United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, from 1975-1976. He was an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey from 1976-1982. After several years of practicing commercial and banking litigation in New Jersey and teaching law as an adjunct professor at Seton Hall University Law School and Rutgers University Law School, he moved to San Diego. He was an Assistant United States Attorney in the Southern District of California from 1985-1986. Subsequently, he served as a United States Magistrate Judge in the Southern District of California from 1986 until January 1996, when he was appointed United States District Judge for the Southern District of California by President Clinton.

Jonathan Hangartner

Jon Hangartner received a B.S. in Engineering Physics cum laude from Tufts University, and a J.D. magna cum laude from Pace University School of Law. He served as law clerk to the Hon. Gerard L. Goettel, United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York, then as a litigation associate at Coudert Brothers in Washington, D.C., working on international arbitrations and antitrust litigation. After moving to San Diego in 1998, he was briefly an associate at Procopio, then a partner first at a small IP boutique and then at Sheppard Mullin. In 2007 he formed his own firm in La Jolla. His practice is focused on patent and other intellectual property litigation. California Law Business magazine selected Mr. Hangartner as one of the top 20 lawyers in California under 40 years of age.

Kelly Mok

Kelly Mok has been a Deputy District Attorney for 13 1/2 years. She prosecuted a variety of cases ranging from thefts and drugs to sexual assaults and homicides. She is currently assigned to the Family Protection Unit prosecuting cases involving domestic violence and crimes against children. She is also involved in various multi-agency task groups and works on a regular basis with law enforcement, social workers, and victim advocates.

Michelle S. Park

Michelle S. Park is founding partner of Park Fryar LLP – Employment Legal Group, a law firm which specializes in employment-related counseling, litigation, workplace investigations, and AB 1825 training. She has over 10 years of experience representing clients ranging from Fortune 500 companies and public entities to small businesses in all types of employment-related matters including claims of discrimination, harassment, retaliation, defamation, wrongful termination, breach of contract, wage and hour matters, class actions, and unfair business practices. Prior to founding her own law firm, Ms. Park practiced employment law with the largest employment and labor law firm in the country. Ms. Park has served as a bar leader and mentor in the legal community including as past President of Pan Asian Lawyers of San Diego and currently as Chair of Professional Development for KABA. She is also an Adjunct Professor at National University and UCSD where she teaches courses on Negotiation, Alternative Dispute Resolution, and Organizational Leadership.

Alan K. Tse

Alan K. Tse is General Counsel of LG Electronics MobileComm U.S.A., Inc., the nation's #1 mobile phone manufacturer with annual US sales of over $6 billion. He is responsible for all legal matters for LG's mobile phone business in the US, and sits on the company's six-member senior management committee. Prior to joining LG, Mr. Tse was the Vice President and General Counsel of Ligos Corporation, a venture capital backed software company based in Silicon Valley. Previously, Mr. Tse was the Vice President of Strategic Development and General Counsel of Centerpoint Broadband Technologies, Inc., a Silicon Valley telecommunication equipment company where he helped raised over $200 million dollars of venture capital financing. Mr. Tse started his career as a business and technology attorney at Brobeck Phleger and Harrison LLP representing leading technology companies and venture capitalists. He is the co-founder and serves on the Board of the Asian American Legal Foundation and also serves on the Board of Directors of the Association of Corporate Counsel, San Diego Chapter. Mr. Tse is a frequent speaker at national legal conferences and was named one of the best lawyers under 40 by the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association in 2005. Mr. Tse holds a B.A. in Economics and Political Science from the University of California at Berkeley where he earned Phi Beta Kappa honors and graduated cum laude from Harvard Law School.